Homeland Mission Effort-- Eastport, Maine 2011-12

Leaving Bangor, Maine ...Sunday, June 17

Arriving Bangor, Maine..., Sunday, June 24

Cost per person ...$200.00 (Make checks payable to All Souls Church with ASSIST-JC in the memo line.)
This includes transportation, food, insurance, lodging and most of our building supplies.

Each participant will be responsible for $200.00 out of pocket

*Additional Funds raised during the winter and spring 2011-2012 will go towards the Mission Trip to Honduras or the Navajo Reservation in Arizona in 2013

To reserve a seat in the van and a place on a work team...

YOU MUST PUT DOWN A DEPOSIT OF $50 00 AND TURN IN THE COMMITMENT AGREEMENT BY OCTOBER 31, 2011.

A commitment to participate means:

- You will participate in all ASSIST JC fund raisers from NOW through June
- You will attend all ASSIST-JC group meetings to gain skills in construction and prepare mentally and spiritually for journey. There are pre-work camp team building meetings to prepare us to work at the project sites as a well-tuned unit and get the most out of the experience.
- You will obtain, if you do not already have one, a current U.S. Passport (we will reserve one day for sightseeing in Canada and it helps with preparations for the 2013 trip to Honduras)
- You will make sure a parent or guardian attends all parent meetings.
